

Alive in the Spirit

Alive in the Spirit Symposium

On Saturday, December 6, 2008, during the National Conference on Catholic Youth Ministry (NCCYM) at the Cleveland Convention Center the National Catholic Committee for Girl Scouts and Camp Fire invites you to renew your vision of Catholic youth ministry and feel your spirit come alive. Explore your faith through these creative workshops and speakers. Join us for our luncheon and spend the day nurturing your body and your soul. Symposium includes a keynote and choice of two workshops.

Keynote

“Come with Me into the Fields” presented by Colette Kennett

The call to discipleship is shared by all the faithful. What motivates an individual to truly walk in the footsteps of Jesus through service outreach? You, too, can “roll up your sleeves” and embrace your missionary spirit.

Workshops

“Hearing the Voices of Young Women” presented by Carole Goodwin

Helping young women to be all God has created them to be will be the primary focus of this workshop. Participants will explore ways to empower young women to listen to the positive rather than negative messages of media, society, and peers. Stories of the lives and example of holy women will be shared. This workshop is for any adult who is involved in ministry that enriches the faith development of young women.

“Shepherding the Heart” presented by Tammy Amosson

As ministers and youth leaders we need to talk with, not at, young people. This workshop addresses the issue of not pointing the instructional finger, but rather holding the spiritual hand and how we can better nurture the young soul with our time, ears and heart. Helpful for parents, catechist, teachers, and adult leaders who will be ministering to our youth.

“Training the Trainer” presented by Pat Antonacci

Learn how to adapt the Catholic Religious Recognition Moderator Training Packet to fit the needs of your diocesan committee. There will be helpful tips, handouts, certificates, and much more.
